

GRIND OF THE COURT

Tom Connor Is Sentenced to Sixty Days in Jail.

APPEALS TO A HIGHER COURT

Boy Burglars Are Held for Trial in the Superior Court—The Grind of the Justice Mills.

In his celebration of the glorious Fourth Tom Connor, according to the testimony of Officer James White in police court yesterday morning, became quite patriotic, and when the officer requested him to subscribe, not only declined to do so, but even justified the custodian of the peace and pointed a revolver at him. Judge Haggerty considered the whole affair as a rather aggravated case of assault and battery, and assessed Mr. Connor $50 fine and costs or sixty days in jail. Mr. Connor appealed the case, was released on his bond, and will try conclusions later with Judge Burlingame. Orville Read, Ira Vincent, William Brogdon and Bert Baker, the boy burglars supposed to be responsible for the recent robberies of Harry paper store and Dettenthaler's meat market, were held for trial to the superior court. Martinus Van Zaltbommel, the well-known Hollander accused of kindling a fire in the streets, was referred to the county poor superintendent, and Martanus will probably be sent back to Kalamazoo. John Ferguson could not find anybody willing to go on his bond for $200 as surety that he would thereafter be a sober, well-behaved citizen, and John went to jail for ninety days.

They May Appeal It.

Twelve Van Dellen and six other Hollanders, living on Diamond street, who vigorously opposed the opening of that so-called as ordered recently by a superior court jury, yesterday filed a protest against the confirmation of the verdict. It is said they will appeal the case to the supreme court. The city only takes about five feet of their land, but several of them claim to own to the center of the proposed street, and are fighting the improvement hard for this and other reasons.

Wants School Near Home.

The case of Herbert Haire against Andrew Whalen, Thomas Nanings and Frank Dan is occupied Judge Adell's attention yesterday afternoon. The defendants are school trustees of District No. 7, Paris township, and Haire secured an injunction to prevent them from moving the school house, which a recent school meeting had decided ought to be moved. The hearing yesterday was on whether the injunction should be made permanent or not.

Was McCarthy's Door Open?

Dennis McCarthy, of the firm of McCarthy & Bowen, was arraigned yesterday morning before Justice Brown on a charge of keeping his place at Reed's open last Sunday. A plea of not guilty was entered in his behalf and he will be given a hearing next Friday. The officers claim to have a warrant against Dennis and say he will stand if the constable to close up as other Reed's lake saloonkeepers have done.

One Knot Holds Firm.

Judge Adell yesterday afternoon dismissed the divorce suit of John L. Norcutt against Myrtle Norcutt, on the ground that neither party lived in Kent county. He granted a dissolution of the marriage bonds in the case of Henrietta Sterns versus Charles Sterns, as the ground of non-support, and gave to Mrs. Sterns the custody of her 7-year-old child.

A Bit more Law.

Why is it that people in general are so prone to disregard loss of strength, clearly perceptible in bodily shrinkage, failure of appetite, loss of weight? Insomuch as this is true, there are suggestive reasons. One of the most obvious signs of danger shown by advanced age is wasting strength. An effective tonic is the best safeguard against suspending power. Among the ingredients which render manure less developed and experience appears to be factor in this. There is, however, in the composition of manure, a large amount of mineral salts, especially potassium, which is a source of vital force, and a regular action of the nerves, both caused by its use, co-operates in the complete restoration of vigor. The manure restores liver and kidney trouble and aids in the
